

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Linda Kaye Hausvik was born April 22, 1951, to Lloyd and Verna Hausvik at Aberdeen, South Dakota, and has remained a life-long resident of South Dakota; and,

Whereas, Linda attended high school in Doland, South Dakota, and received a secretarial associate degree from Northern State College; and,

Whereas, Linda is a devoted daughter, sister, aunt, and friend, and she has dedicated her life to public service; and,

Whereas, Linda started her professional career working for the Department of Social Services and then transferred to the Unified Judicial System (UJS) on March 10, 1975, for a total of 36 years of service to the state of South Dakota; and,

Whereas, Linda's career has spanned service under six Chief Justices and five State Court Administrators; and,

Whereas, Linda has cared for the children of 92 families in Pierre over the past 32 years and for an undetermined number of furry friends and other pets that she loves dearly. Her experiences have been very rewarding and interesting, except for the fact that Percy has never been found and only Perry knows what really happened; and,

Whereas, Linda exhibits great pride, enthusiasm, and a generous spirit in both her personal life and career by participating in community activities and supporting both her friends, family, and coworkers; and,

Whereas, Linda will retire on April 8, 2008, from a career with the state of South Dakota, and for this commitment she will be honored on March 31, 2008:

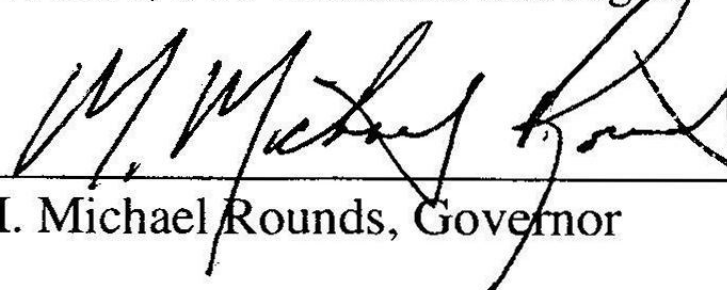

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim April 8, 2008, as in South Dakota, and I join her colleagues, friends, and family as they recognize and congratulate her on a long and successful career, and also wish her an enjoyable retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-sixth Day of March in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Eight.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
